In partnership with Metropolitan Youth Symphony, Portland Summer Ensembles hosts a week-long chamber music camp, culminating in two evening concerts

July 16-21, Portland Summer Ensembles (PSE) and the Metropolitan Youth Symphony (MYS) will host a week-long chamber music camp for student musicians, culminating in a concert by PSE faculty, comprised of members of the Oregon Symphony, and a concert with student musicians.

Led by Artistic Director Jun Iwasaki, Concertmaster of the Nashville Symphony and former Oregon Symphony concertmaster, Portland Summer Ensembles is a week-long chamber music camp that attracts student musicians from throughout Oregon and SW Washington.

Designed for intermediate to advanced students of piano, violin, viola, and cello, the camp offers students an intensive 6-day chamber music experience on the Marylhurst University campus. The week includes chamber ensemble rehearsals, rhythm classes, coaching and master classes. In addition to the daily program, PSE offers two performances to showcase the talent of the faculty, and the inspiring performances of the student chamber ensembles. Oregon Symphony musicians Emily Cole, Jennifer Arnold and Marilyn DeOliveira join concert pianist Susan DeWitt Smith to make up the PSE faculty.

PSE Faculty Performance, Thursday July 19st, 7:30 pm at The Old Church, Portland. 1422 SW 11th Ave, Portland

The program will feature:

Ludwig von Beethoven, String Trio in C minor, Op. 9 No. 3
